

A close-up photograph of a person's hands sealing a white envelope on a rustic wooden table. The person is wearing a patterned tweed jacket. They are using a small, dark wooden spoon to apply a drop of red wax from a small blue jar. A lit candle in a decorative metal holder is nearby, providing light. In the background, there is a wooden box and some papers. The overall atmosphere is warm and traditional.

Office de Tourisme
Brionnais Sud Bourgogne