

The image is a promotional poster for a haunted house event. At the top, a large, ornate wrought-iron archway serves as a gate. Atop the arch is a golden skull with bat wings. The archway is flanked by two glowing lanterns. The text "MAISON HANTÉE DE FLEURIE" is inscribed on the arch in a stylized font. Through the archway, a large, multi-story Gothic-style house with many windows is visible. The house is lit from within, and a full moon is seen in the dark sky above it. In the foreground, three figures are standing on a path leading towards the house: a woman in a long white dress, a child in a red hooded cloak carrying a basket, and a large, dark, hairy werewolf. The overall atmosphere is dark and spooky.
